Most of the homes are privately owned or rented from the land owner. Seems like there is little opportunity for housing family's here. Lack of amenities/housing/jobs/transport means that new people cannot come and settle in the area.

Litter is sometimes a problem, more in the summer months. Also caravans are quite often parked off road for many months at a time spoiling the natural coastline.

I am quite new to the area so don't feel I am able to contribute to decisions at this point. I wouldn't want to stand on toes so to speak.
